

Buckinghamshire County Council

Langley Park Historic Landscape Project

This is a £1.9 million project funded by the Heritage Lottery Fund to restore Langley Park's historic landscape to its former glory.

Langley Park Historic Landscape Project

- Old paths through Temple gardens being restored by UPM Tilhill – the main contractors for the project.

Langley Park Historic Landscape Project

- Coppicing of the Rhododendrons plays a vital role in the long term maintenance of these plants.
- There are more than 2,000 rhododendrons in the Edwardian temple gardens.

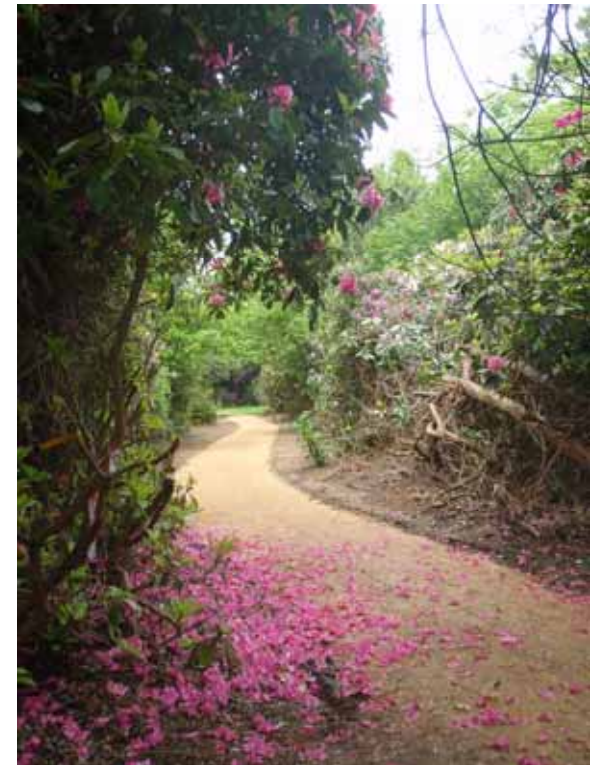

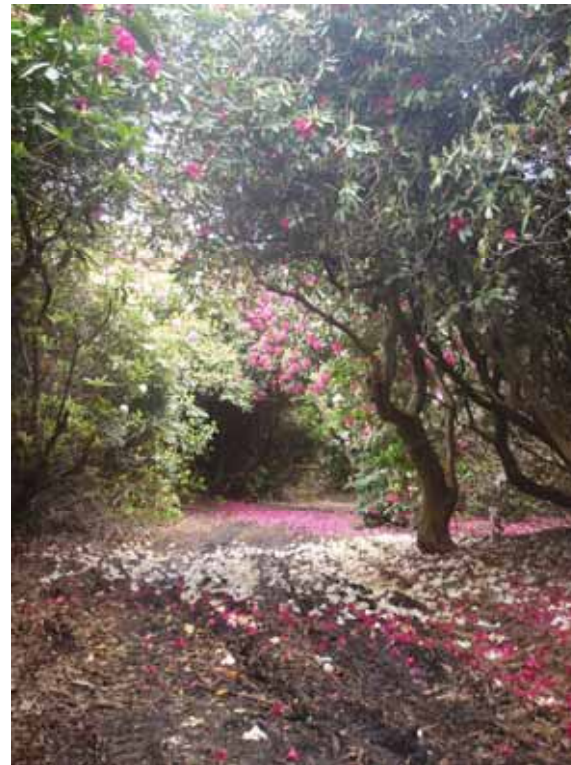

Langley Park Historic Landscape Project

- The gardeners are cataloguing all the rhododendrons species in Temple Gardens with the help of Ivor Stokes – a national rhododendron expert.

Langley Park Historic Landscape Project

- Before and after photos of paths through Temple Gardens to improve visitor enjoyment and access.

An example of a path in Temple Gardens before and after restoration.

