BucksPlanning/PublicAccess Conditions of Use

Site ownership and disclaimer

BucksPlanning/PublicAccess is managed by Buckinghamshire County Council who are responsible for the information within the site. While every care has been taken in the compilation of this information no part of it constitutes legal or professional advice, or formal notification of a planning decision. Buckinghamshire County Council will not be held responsible for any loss, damage or inconvenience whatsoever caused as a result of any inaccuracy or error in any part of the information held on or downloaded from BucksPlanning/PublicAccess. While every effort is made to virus check information users are recommended to recheck all downloaded materials with their own virus check software.

Copyright

Planning application information submitted to Buckinghamshire County Council is protected by the Copyrights Act (Section 47, 1988). You may only use material which is downloaded and/or printed for consultation purposes, to compare current applications with previous schemes and to check whether developments have been completed in accordance with approved plans. Further copies must not be made without the prior permission of the copyright owner.

The logos and artwork on BucksPlanning/PublicAccess are the copyright of the information providers and use of these is prohibited without prior authorisation.

Data Protection

Buckinghamshire County Council is registered under the Data Protection Act 1998 to hold and process personal data. Any data provided through this website may be used for any of Buckinghamshire County Council's statutory purposes and will be held in accordance with the principles of the Data Protection Act 1998.

Ordnance Survey Maps

Maps are reproduced on BucksPlanning/PublicAccess with the permission of the Ordnance Survey on behalf of The Controller of HMSO, Crown Copyright. All rights reserved. Unauthorised reproduction infringes crown copyright and may lead to prosecution or civil proceedings. When a viewer wishes to reproduce OS material in any way they will be directly responsible for obtaining prior permission from Ordnance Survey.

Limitations

The planning history contained within the site is incomplete and must not be used as a substitute for carrying out a formal Land Charge Search. The position of property boundaries as shown on the map may vary from those on the ground and cannot be used for the purpose of resolving boundary or ownership disputes. Under normal circumstances details of new valid planning applications will be visible on the site within 5 working days of receipt. Copies of the application forms and plans can be seen at our Development Control office, County Hall, Aylesbury. Buckinghamshire County Council reserves the right to remove or not display certain planning information for confidentiality or other reasons.

The service continues to be developed but at the present time only the application, site map and decision notice will be uploaded to BucksPlanning/PublicAccess.

Ordnance Survey Positional Accuracy Improvement Programme:

Ordnance Survey have undertaken a national programme to improve the accuracy of their mapping and councils will be amending their own mapping to coincide with any changes made by Ordnance Survey. As a result there will be times when the mapping within BucksPlanning and PublicAccess does not coincide as expected. Whilst we will endeavor to minimize these discrepancies we cannot be held responsible for any such errors or actions taken as a result of these errors.

For background information on the national Positional Accuracy Improvement Programme please visit <http://www.ordnancesurvey.co.uk/oswebsite/pai/>

BucksPlanning/PublicAccess Licence Agreement

BucksPlanning/PublicAccess are owned and operated by Buckinghamshire County Council. Set out below are the terms and conditions which, together with any legal notices displayed elsewhere on this website, represent all the terms and conditions on which we will provide you with access to the datasets created by Local Government Information House Limited (the “National Datasets”) and the datasets compiled and maintained by Buckinghamshire County Council (the “Authority Datasets”) associated with the use of the National Land and Property Gazetteer and the National Street Gazetteer. Your continued use of BucksPlanning and/or PublicAccess indicates your acceptance to be bound by these terms and conditions. If you do not agree to be bound by these terms and conditions, please cease using BucksPlanning/PublicAccess.

The terms and conditions for this licence agreement are as follows:

The National and Authority datasets are associated with the use of the National Land and Property Gazetteer and the National Street Gazetteer. Information displayed throughout BucksPlanning/PublicAccess is extracted from a copyright work owned by the Local Government Information House Limited and Buckinghamshire County Council.

A single screen print of the results of a search of the National and/or Authority datasets is permitted for your own use.

You may not extract or re-utilise information derived from the National and/or Authority Datasets and/or any copies of such information (whether electronic or in hard copy format) for any commercial or business purpose including but not limited to, trading, building commercial databases, reselling or redistribution of such information.

You are not permitted to modify, adapt, arrange, alter, adjust or make any additions to any information derived from the National and/or Authority Datasets, nor are you permitted to combine such information with other mapping, data or other information, including for the avoidance of doubt, other such information derived from BucksPlanning/PublicAccess.

Save as permitted by paragraph 2 above, the reproduction, copying, downloading, storage, recording, broadcasting, retransmission, distribution, decompilation, reverse-engineering or disassembly of any part of BucksPlanning/PublicAccess is not permitted without our prior written consent.

It is your responsibility to ensure that any information derived from the National and/or Authority Datasets is not made available, either in electronic unencrypted form or in hard copy format, to any third party that may attempt to use the map in contravention of these terms and conditions.

You must inform us immediately if you become aware of a third party using information derived from the National and/or Authority Datasets in contravention of these terms and conditions or of any infringement of trade marks located in BucksPlanning/PublicAccess.

We shall have no liability to any person or organisation in respect of any loss or damage arising directly or indirectly from the use of the information contained in BucksPlanning/PublicAccess.

We take every reasonable effort to ensure that information contained in BucksPlanning/PublicAccess is as accurate as possible. However, the services featured in BucksPlanning/PublicAccess are provided “as is”, and all warranties, conditions and other terms implied by statute or common law are, to the fullest extent permitted by law, excluded. We shall not be liable to you for any indirect or consequential loss (whether for loss of profit, loss of business, depletion of goodwill or otherwise), costs, expense or other claims for consequential compensation whatsoever (howsoever caused) which arise out of or in connection with your use of BucksPlanning/PublicAccess
