

New website for Walkers

John Harris's

Walking in England

Walking in England www.walkinginengland.co.uk has thousands of walks to download and print FREE!

I am a keen walker and found that, although there is a load of information about walking in the internet, it was often hidden away and difficult to find.

So www.walkinginengland.co.uk came into being.

www.walkinginengland.co.uk gives you, county by county, all the information you need for the best walking in the Country.

Details of thousands of walks to download and print free, all the walking groups in the country, maps and walk books plus loads more information.

So check out the website and find some new walks!
